Dimensions of Extension Education

Readership : The book will be useful to all related to extension education, rural development, women empowerment and co-operatives etc.

The book is purely a text book for the undergraduate students of extension education in colleges. This is based on the syllabus of first year agriculture students. This will help the students for the NET and JRF examinations.

The book consists of six chapters mainly dealing with the basics of extension education, community development, rural development, and important rural as well as community development programmes as per the syllabus. Besides, some frontier areas of extension are also discussed in the book.
